

Sinclair Broadcasting should not confuse politics and religion by calling it news. Political ads should not be free, paid at the entire public's expense. Let the right wingers pay their own self-serving dogma. The FCC has an obligation to the public, not the political bible bangers. This should hold true for the liberals as well, by the way.